

Financial Implications for the use of Prohibited Substances at the Canadian Masters Weightlifting Championships (CMWC)

This document is a required inclusion of the CMWC Registration

- A) Medical Review: (3.04) No cost at this time.
- B) Request for Sample-B Analysis (3.07.6) $600
Refundable if the AAF (Adverse Analytical Finding) is void.
- C) Request for an Appeal of the ADC (Anti-Doping Disciplinary Committee) decision. (3.08)
Non refundable and subject to change $800
Athlete is also responsible for all costs that exceed the initial Appeal Fee.

I have examined the WCHM Anti-doping Policy and fully understand the financial implications for the use of prohibited substances at the Canadian Masters Weightlifting Championships.

By registering for the Canadian Masters Weightlifting Championships and paying the required registration fee, I am acknowledging the information provided in “Financial Implications for the use of Prohibited Substances at the Canadian Masters Weightlifting Championships” as noted above.