

Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE) and Medical Review Applications – Brief Summary

(for WCHM members; do not contact the CCES)

| Competition                                     | Required Document                                                                                 | Immediately contact                                                                                                                                 | When to apply                                                                                                                                                                   | Cost                        |
|-------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Canadian MastersWeightlifting Championships | Medical Review ApplicationMedical-Review-application.EN .2023.01.27-1.pdf | Prior contact with WCHM is not required.                                                                                                            | If you are selected for doping control, please provide the DFSI Doping Control Officer with your Application OR request to whom your forthcoming application should be sent to. | No cost.                    |
| IMWA World MastersPan American Masters      | TUEThis is the preferred process.                                                      | lmwla.antidoping@gmail.comANDlegal@antidopping.hu | No later than 30 days before the competition                                                                                                                                    | $900 USDNon refundable |
| IMWA World MastersPan American Masters      | Retroactive TUE                                                                                   | HUNADO will direct the athlete how to apply, with instructions(Hungarian Antidoping Organization)                                           | The athlete with adverse analytical results will be contacted by HUNADO                                                                                                         | $900 USDNon refundable |

For more detailed descriptions, members are strongly encouraged to visit the Anti-Doping section of the WCHM website.

A completed TUE application from IMWA DOES NOT GUARANTEE the GRANTING OF A TUE.